CERTIFICATES

R X COSMETICS

According to a report by PKO BP, the global cosmetics market is expected to grow by 34.9% by 2026, reaching an impressive level of EUR 574.1 billion.

In Poland, the cosmetics market also looks very promising, currently reaching a value of PLN 31.2 billion.

This is evidence of the dynamic development of the cosmetics sector in our country, with an annual increase in the cosmetics and chemical basket at a level of almost 12%, both in terms of value and quantity. These data clearly indicate the growing interest in cosmetics among consumers.

A particularly promising market segment is cosmetics related to personal hygiene, including bath cosmetics. Forecasts indicate that body care and bath products constitute 17% and 13% of the cosmetics market, respectively, which emphasizes their important role in this sector. Although specific data regarding the bath cosmetics market may be limited, the overall growth and trends in this segment are very promising. Bath cosmetics, including our products, have huge potential for development and growth in the coming years.

It is also worth noting that as many as 83% of Poles purchase cosmetics in brick-and-mortar stores, which emphasizes the significant sales potential in this distribution channel. This is important information that should influence the marketing and distribution strategy. In this context, the offer of bath cosmetics of the R X Company brand becomes exceptionally attractive. Our company, using this data and our experience, is ready to provide not only high quality products, but also an innovative approach to bath cosmetics.

Our Bath Balls

The exact number of bath bombs sold per year can vary depending on the market, region, and the popularity of the product at the time. The bath cosmetics industry is dynamic, and it is difficult to obtain accurate data without access to market reports and sales analysis. However, it is possible to estimate the number of bath bombs sold by some of the most popular companies in the industry:

Lush: Lush is one of the largest bath bomb manufacturers in the world. In 2015, the company announced that it sells approximately 21 million bath bombs per year worldwide.

Other companies: Other popular companies such as Bomb Cosmetics, The Body Shop, and smaller brands and DIY manufacturers also have a significant market share. While specific numbers may not be publicly available, it is safe to assume that the combined sales of bath bombs by these companies are in the tens of millions per year.

Bath bombs are synonymous with the highest quality in the world of bath cosmetics. Our products offer luxury that is comparable to the best manufacturers of luxury bath bombs, but at a price that is accessible to everyone.

Why Choose Our Products?

Luxury and quality: Our bath bombs offer luxurious comfort and effectiveness comparable to the best brands, but at a price that is affordable for everyone.

Aesthetics and functionality: Thanks to the variety of colors, accessories and hidden surprises, our products provide not only relaxation, but also visual experiences and an element of fun.

Top Quality

Excellent Materials

Carefully selected ingredients: Our bath bombs are made from selected ingredients of the highest quality, plant extracts, oils or butters. Thanks to advanced production technology, we ensure full dissolution and effectiveness of each ingredient.

High-quality accessories: The balls may contain luxurious additives such as gold particles, butter, plant extracts and dried flowers, which increase the comfort of the bath and provide a wonderful experience.

Diversity

Single and multi-color variants: We offer bath bombs in a variety of colors, from elegant single colors to spectacular multi-color variants that create beautiful visual effects in the water.

Hidden surprises: It is possible to place a capsule with a surprise inside the ball, which will only appear when the ball is dissolved in water.

Quality at the level of luxury brands, available to everyone:

Comparison with the best:

Our bath bombs are comparable to the products of the largest manufacturers of luxury bath bombs, such as Lusha, in terms of quality and effectiveness.

Affordable price:

Despite the highest quality ingredients and technology, our balls are available at prices that make a luxurious bathing experience accessible to everyone.

Comparison example:

CHARACTERISTIC	R X	LUSH
Quality of ingredients	The highest quality	High quality
Dissolution formula	Perfect and even	Even
Price per unit	Attractive and accessible	Higher
Luxury accessories	Particles of gold, butter, extracts	Similar accessories, but more expensive

Peelings

Peels are a great choice for those looking for the highest quality skin care products. Our peels are designed to nourish the skin and provide it with long-lasting care, thanks to carefully selected natural ingredients.

Our philosophy when creating peels is:

The highest quality ingredients

Natural Abrasives: Our peels use natural abrasives such as salt and sugar, which effectively remove dead skin cells, leaving the skin smooth and refreshed.

Rich oils and butters: Each peeling is enriched with the highest quality oils and butters, such as plum oil or mango butter, which moisturize, nourish and regenerate the skin.

Innovative accessories

Extracts and particles: We can enrich our scrubs with various plant extracts, such as green tea extract or particles that add additional care benefits.

Sophisticated ingredients: We use unique ingredients, such as roasted coffee oil, which additionally stimulates and improves the condition of the skin.

Aromatherapy and relaxation: The wonderful scents and aromatherapeutic properties of our salts support relaxation and improve well-being.

Personalization: Thanks to the possibility of customizing colors, forms, scents and packaging, our effervescent salts can be perfectly matched to your needs and preferences.

Bath oils

Our bath oils stand out on the market thanks to our many years of experience and the ability to use unique plants. While other manufacturers use common ingredients such as lavender or rose, we reach for unique plants, such as black cumin flower, dried phalaris, ruskus and lagurus. Thanks to this, we create unique, multi-coloured compositions.

When you choose
our oils,
you choose quality,
aesthetics
and a unique bathing experience.

Exclusivity and Aesthetics

Access to rare raw materials and the ability to bottle them allows us to produce oils that are both beautiful and effective. Our oils in various shapes and bottle sizes are the perfect choice for a gift and decoration for any bathroom.

Precision and Technology

Few manufacturers offer such oils, because placing plants in a bottle requires precision, experience and appropriate technology. We have mastered this art, which makes our products truly unique.

A Unique Bathing Experience

Natural, luxurious ingredients and scents inspired by nature or the latest perfume trends provide a unique sensory experience. Our oils not only relax, but also moisturize the skin, eliminating the need for post-bath lotions.
